AXIS BELIEVED STAGING SQUEEZE PLAY FOR FRENCH FLEET

TERRITORY IS DEMANDED BY ITALIANS

Laval Consents to Training Of Nazis on Warships as Rome Asks Title to Nice and Corsica

VICHY IS ON THE SPOT

London, May 26.—(P)—An Axis squeeze play to get the French fleet or grab French territory, or both, was suggested today in parallel reports that Italy has demanded title to Nice and Corsica and that Pierre Laval has consented to the training of German seamen at French naval bases on the characteristics of French warships.

Comparison of the various reports brought out the outlines of a situation in which Germany and Italy each was using the needs of the other to seek her own ends, with the Vichy French government in the middle, tornly trying to play off one master against the other.

The Germans were portrayed as using the Italian territorial demands as a threat to force Vichy to give up the French fleet peacefully.

The Italians were described as seeking to bolster their home front's morale by taking a slice of French territory and at the same time using this maneuver as a pretext to keep at home 300,000 Italian soldiers that the Germans would like to have sent to the Russian front.

Pierre Laval, the Vichy chief of government and the man on the spot from all angles, was reported by diplomatic observers to have offered to negotiate the Italian demands, with a disarming offer to discuss Tunisia. The Italians have wanted Tunisia since before the World War, but their new demands were reported to deal with Nice and Corsica, so that injection of Tunisia into the discussions would further complicate and possibly delay matters.

Informed sources in London who have underground connections, said that in dealing with Germany, on the other hand, Laval had consented to the training of a considerable number of German seamen at French naval yards and stations to familiarize them with French warships. Possibly less than the Germans want, this still would serve as a placatory move.

DESTROYER BLAKEY DAMAGED BY ENEMY

Washington, May 26.—(P)—The navy announced today that the World War destroyer Blakeley had been damaged by an enemy torpedo in the Caribbean sea, but had reached port with ten members of her crew reported missing and six injured.

The announcement came in the navy's communique No. 81.

The Blakeley was the 13th naval vessel announced as sunk or damaged from all causes and was the first combatant ship reported attacked in the Caribbean.

Brazil Speeds Preparations

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, May 26.—(P)—A high source said today that it was understood that more than one submarine was attacked in the battle near Fortaleza on Brazil's northeast coast three days ago in which one submarine "supposedly German" was sunk by several United States planes.

The anti-submarine attacks by United States forces were part of a great activity off Brazil's northeast coast, including an assault on another Brazilian merchantman by a submarine and the expected arrival of survivors from unidentified vessels.

As a result, Brazil increased her defense preparations.

Authoritative sources at Fortaleza said the sinking of the submarine was confirmed by the appearance of a large oil slick and wreckage on the surface.

Salmon, Sardines, Mackerel And Herring Ordered Held

Washington, May 26.—(P)—The war Production Board today ordered canners to set aside their entire 1942 pack of salmon, sardines, mackerel and Atlantic herring to the needs of the armed services and the lend-lease program.

WPB officials emphasized, however, that the order did not necessarily mean that none of the 1942 pack would be available to civilians.

"Because of uncertainty as to supply and the demand, it was

Seek to Avert Roll Call On Army Pay Bill

Veteran Observers Say Record Vote Can Not Be Avoided

ALLOTMENT CHANGES

BY W. F. ARBOGAST

Washington, May 26.—(P)—Fearful of the outcome of a record vote on whether to establish a $50 monthly minimum pay base for the armed forces, house proponents of a $42 limit cast about today for some means of averting a roll-call when the bill comes up tomorrow.

They conceded privately that it would be difficult to retain the $42 recommended by a senate-house conference committee if the issue were put squarely to a vote, which Representative Rankin (D-Mass.) said he would demand.

It was Rankin who proposed the amendment, overwhelmingly adopted by the house May 13 to increase the base pay of privates and apprentice seamen to $50. The senate had voted the $42 figure and this was accepted by the house military committee. The present pay is $21 for the first four months of service, $30 for the next eight, and $40 monthly after one year.

Veteran house observers said they did not know how a record vote could be avoided if Rankin and enough other members insisted on one.

Economy-minded members were expected to rely heavily on the time element in their arguments for the $42 compromise.

Changes in the allotment legislation, committee members said, may be necessary after final action on the pay increase bill.

The allotment bill, under which part of a service man's pay would be added to government allowances for his dependents was drafted with the understanding a $42 base pay would be voted.

Should the base pay be boosted to $50, the schedule of allotments and allowances may have to be revised.

MODEL TAKES STAND IN HER OWN DEFENSE

New York, May 26.—(P)—Dark-haired Madeline Webb, fighting for her life after her general sessions trial for first degree murder, denied from the witness stand today that she "lured" Mrs. Susan Flora Reich to her death by strangulation at the Hotel Sutton last March as the state has charged.

The pretty former model, accused with her lover, Eli Shonbrun, and John D. Cullen, of the slaying of Mrs. Reich, wife of a New Jersey was processor, asserted shortly after she took the stand in her own defense that she was not present in the Hotel Sutton suite at the time Mrs. Reich was bound and gagged and left to die.

thought best to require that the entire pack of these fish be set aside," Lawrence Hopkinson, in charge of fishery products for WPB, said.

He estimated the 1942 salmon pack at 5,400,000 cases, of which about 2,500,000 probably will be required by the government; it was estimated lend-lease requirements would take from 50 to 65 percent of the year's pack of sardines, Atlantic herring and mackerel, probably leaving the rest for civilians.

Over 3,500 Families are Made Homeless in Honesdale Area

Field Headquarters Are Being Established by Red Cross at Scranton

MORE VICTIMS FOUND

Honesdale, May 26.—(P)—Between 3,500 and 4,000 families need financial assistance in restoring their homes as a result of the last week-end's flood that took at least 31 lives in eastern Pennsylvania, the Red Cross reported today.

Nearly a fourth of that number are in the Honesdale-Hawley-White Mills region where at least 22 persons drowned in the ram-paging Lackawaxen river. Six persons are still missing.

Field headquarters to aid in the rehabilitation are being established at Scranton, 25 miles south of Honesdale. Herbert Carman of the eastern Red Cross area office announced after he and other officials made an all-day tour of the devastated region. Honesdale was so badly wrecked by the flood, it was not advisable to set up the office there, he said.

Some 300 homeless are being cared for here at a temporary shelter.

Five more drowning victims, among them Joseph Westbrook, 45, of Honesdale were found late yesterday a few miles down stream from Honesdale. The others were not immediately identified.

The state highway department posted signs warning residents to boil all water for drinking purposes and typhoid serum was dispatched to the area.

The Works Progress Administration has allocated $68,000 for northeastern Pennsylvania, principally for repairs to public property.

HIGHWAY FATALITY

Youngstown, O., May 26.—(P)—Frank Randolph, 21, of Sharon, was killed last night in the collision of his motor cycle and an automobile near the junction of Routes 7 and 82, the state highway patrol reported today.

Opposition To Lowering Of The Draft Age

BY JACK BELL

Washington, May 26.—(P)—Strong bi-partisan opposition developed today against any move in congress to draft men in the 18-19 year age classes for military service.

Senator Hill of Alabama, the Democratic whip, declared he would oppose any change of this nature in the selective service act—a change which the army was reported preparing to request.

At the same time, Senator McNary of Oregon, the Republican leader, predicted that any such proposal would be certain to arouse lengthy controversy in the senate, which once voted to draft 19 year olds but subsequently compromised with the house on 20 years.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said he thought there would be little to be gained, as far as the over-all war effort was concerned, by placing these youngsters in the military ranks.

Meanwhile, the senate military affairs committee scheduled action today on a measure authorizing the payment of allowances to families of enlisted men in all branches of the service.

The committee was expected to approve an amendment authorizing the classification of men with families into groups who would be inducted only after the rolls of those without dependents had been exhausted.

Davis Scores Apathy Shown At Primaries

Defeated Candidate For Governor Says Situation Encourages Axis

WARNING FROM MARTS

Philadelphia, May 26.—(P)—U. S. Senator James J. Davis, defeated candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, says Pennsylvanians "certainly gave support" in last week's primary election "to statements of Hitler and Mussolini that Americans don't vote."

"Here you are in a war, spending billions and fighting for your basic right to vote, and you don't vote," Davis declared last night at the annual banquet of the Pennsylvania Association of Township Commissioners.

"What's the difference between elections controlled by money and elections controlled by dictators? That's the way it went in Germany—the first inflation, then rich men sending billions to control elections, then dictatorship."

It was Davis' first public appearance since Major General Edward Martin defeated him for the nomination—the first defeat in his long political career.

Davis was asked if he would support General Martin in the general election in November. His only comment was:

"You didn't ask me that question."

Dr. A. C. Marks, executive director of the Pennsylvania Council for Defense, told the commissioners that a "well-organized fifth column" is waiting to swing into action in America with the first enemy air attack.

"The reason the fifth column has (Turn to Page Eight)

Turbulent Medical Career Is Brought To Close By Death

Nazi Chief to See Generals

Moscow, May 26.—(P)—A Tass dispatch from Stockholm said today that Adolf Hitler had left Berlin for his eastern front headquarters to hold an important conference with his generals and that according to well-informed circles he intended to make it clear he intends to retain his post as commander in chief of the army.

The dispatch said that Field Marshal Gen. Walther von Brauchitsch, former commander in chief, would not be present although he still holds the post of adviser of the high command, and that Field Marshal General Fedor von Bock, commander on the southern front, would also be absent "on the pretext that he cannot leave the front."

(The British radio on Saturday night reported that von Bock, taken (Turn to Page Seven)

Russian Shock Troops Break Line of Pill-Boxes and Trenches in Attacks With Bayonets

SEEK NEW DEFENSES

Soviet headquarters reported that Hitler's mechanized armies were suffering heavy losses in tanks and men in an attempt to flank the Russians in the 15-day-old battle of Kharkov.

The Russians declared they had repulsed a violent German surprise attack led by 150 tanks in the Izum-Barvenkova sector, 80 miles south of Kharkov, while Marshal Semeon Timoshenko's main armies pressed on toward Kharkov itself.

Dispatches to Red Star, Soviet army newspaper, said Russian shock troops had broken a line of German pill-boxes and trenches before Kharkov in attacks with hand grenades and bayonets.

Red Star said the Germans now were attempting to fortify a new series of natural defense positions to check the onslaught.

A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters said a gigantic battle of encirclement against the Russians was "in full swing" on the southern flank.

The Russians conceded they were fighting on the defensive in the Izum-Barvenkova zone, while the German command acknowledged that the Red armies held the initiative in the main Kharkov sector.

"Repeated Soviet attacks were beaten off east and north of Kharkov," the Nazi communique said.

Arnold Heads U. S. Mission To Aid Britain

London, May 26.—(P)—A United States war mission, headed by the army and navy chiefs and called one of the most important yet sent to Britain, has arrived and gone into action with no loss of time, it was disclosed today.

The two leaders were Lieut.-Gen. Henry H. Arnold, head of the army air forces, and Rear Admiral John H. Towers, chief of naval aeronautics.

Their purpose is to confer with the British in talks believed designed to coordinate strategy for a master blow against Germany.

Within two hours after stepping from a train that brought them here yesterday from the landing place of a plane which flew them across the Atlantic, Arnold was arranging meetings with the chiefs of Britain's fighting forces.

The typical unofficial British reaction was that the mission fore-shadowed a supreme air offensive against the Axis in Europe.

Tentative Plans For Parade On Memorial Day Complete

Good Plan That Could Be Adopted in Warren

Hartford, Conn., May 26.—(P)—The board of aldermen authorized Mayor Thomas J. Spellacy last night to have designed a suitable flag to be distributed among night shift defense workers for hanging outside their homes in an appeal for quiet while they sleep.

The flag, red, white and blue, will bear the city's seal and the words "war worker."

Rubber From Grain Alcohol Is Suggested

Nebraska Engineer Makes Serious Charges at Committee Hearing

COLLUSION IS HINTED

Washington, May 26.—(P)—A Nebraska engineer testified today that he could build the necessary plants and produce 100,000 tons of synthetic rubber from corn and wheat for less than the cost of hauling the grain for conversion into alcohol at existing distilleries further east.

George E. Johnson, chief engineer of the Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District, also charged before a senate agriculture subcommittee that "practically all" of the important officials of the War Production Board's chemical division formerly worked for the U. S. Industrial Alcohol Company or its subsidiaries, and sought to stave off competition for that firm.

The engineer said that at a conservative estimate, the cost of shipping grain to existing distilleries from points west of Kansas City and Omaha would average 40 cents a bushel, including storage and handling charges. He said 80,000,000 bushels of grain would be required to make 200,000,000 gallons of alcohol, on the basis of an estimate by Secretary of Commerce Jones. The alcohol would be converted to butadiene, which in turn would be used in making synthetic rubber.

The senate defense investigating committee criticized the army and navy today for not paring their rubber requirements to the bone, asserting that if the production of synthetics did not come up to schedule the military forces "may find themselves without rubber at some future date."

In a 57-page report, the committee said: National gasoline rationing on "a sensible basis" and the requisitioning of tires must be given serious consideration to conserve 1,000,000 tons of rubber now on the wheels of motor vehicles.

"There will be no new or reclaimed rubber for non-essential uses within the next three years."

HORE-BELISHA FAVORS SECOND FRONT NOW

Devonport, England, May 26.—(P)—The former war secretary, Leslie Hore-Belisha, declared in a speech today that the successful establishment of a second front in Europe might end the war this year.

"A stern struggle is in progress around Kharkov," he said. "We have promised to intervene to relieve our Russian ally. The psychological moment may come, beyond which we must not delay if our action is to turn the scale."

Rationing Row Is Unsettled

Harrisburg, May 26.—(P)—The next move in a dispute with Governor James over appointment of a permanent rationing director for Pennsylvania was left up to officials today.

James declined flatly to submit to Price Administration Leon Henderson a list of five names from which to pick an administrator and insisted the present director, T. Elmer Traneau, be retained.

Headquarters will be transferred from Harrisburg to Philadelphia when the permanent rationing organization is completed.

Henderson asked James last April 20 to have the State Defense Council—which the governor heads—suggest five men for the $7,500 a year job. He promised to give (Turn to Page Eight)

Five Divisions Each Headed By a Band Will be in The Formation

WILL MOVE AT TEN A. M.

Tentative plans for the Memorial Day parade next Saturday, May 30th, call for a formation of five divisions in what is hoped will be one of the best attended parades held in Warren in many years.

The plans for the parade, the make-up of participating organizations and the line of march were decided at a meeting held at the Veterans of Foreign Wars club-rooms and attended by representatives of that organization, as well as members of Lewis M. Clark Camp, No. 108, United Spanish American War Veterans, and Chief Complanter Post, No. 135, American Legion.

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will have charge of the parade, the American Legion will be in charge of services at the speakers' stand and members of the Spanish War Camp, assisted by the Legion, will conduct the impressive ritual at the G. A. R. Circle in Oakland cemetery.

Charles G. Pearson, marshal of the parade, announced that present plans call for the parade units to form in Fourth avenue, facing west, between Hazel and Market streets. The parade will counter-march in Fourth avenue, turn south at Market, west in Pennsylvania avenue to Hickory street bridge, and thence south to Crescent Park and Oakland cemetery.

The parade will move promptly at 10 o'clock, the starting signal to be one tap of the Central Fire Station bell.

The parade formation as now set up will comprise the following divisions and organizations:

Bill Aimed To Curb Unions Is Approved

Washington, May 26.—(P)—Legislation to subject labor unions to prosecution under the anti-racketeering laws and set up stiff penalties for interference with movement of commerce was approved today by the house judiciary committee.

While the measure, approved on a 9 to 3 vote, does not specifically mention labor unions, Rep. Hobbs (D-Ala.), its author and a member of the committee, asserted:

"As I have said before the bill is founded on the bedrock principle that highway robbery is highway robbery, whether the perpetrator holds a union card or not."

He said the measure was designed to "repel" a recent supreme court decision, growing out of a New York trucking case, that labor unions were outside the jurisdiction of the anti-racketeering laws.

The bill would define extortion as "the obtaining of property from another, with his consent, induced by wrongful use of actual or threatened force, violence, or fear, or under color of official right."

The measure included a clause declaring: "Whoever in any way or degree obstructs, delays, or affects commerce, or the movement of any articles or commodity in commerce, by robbery, shall be guilty of a felony."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS IS UNDER WAY

Dr. H. Reed Shepherd, Synod President, in Charge of Meetings in First Church

CANDIDATES EXAMINED

The 100th convention of Pittsburgh Synod, United Lutheran Church, was opened last night in First Lutheran church by Dr. H. Reed Shepherd, synod president, following the mid-afternoon Holy Communion service.

Dr. Shepherd was assisted by the synod secretary, Dr. J. J. Myers, of Pittsburgh; convention chaplain, Rev. E. B. Hanks, Jeannette; Rev. H. J. Schmid, Beaver; Rev. J. F. Kindsvatter, East Liverpool, O., and Rev. Donald R. Poole, Reno, Nev. The Pastors' Choir provided the music.

Following the welcome by President Shepherd and greetings by F. X. Miller, congregational vice president, last night's session was devoted to election of the following officers: Recording secretary, Dr. Myers; treasurer, Dr. Elmer F. Rice, Manorville; secretary of statistics, Rev. J. R. Nicholas, West Newton; secretary of benevolence, Dr. William A. Logan, Turtle Creek.

Following the session, Rev. Eppling F. Reinarts, promotional director of the United Lutheran Church, presented an invitation to full membership in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. This proposal will be presented to the U. L. C. convention in Louisville in October and election of delegates today made necessary consideration of the proposal.

The statistical secretary reported over 100,000 baptized membership of 130,000 and Sunday school membership of 55,523. The treasurer showed $210,000 had been paid during the year in work of the synod and church at large.

During the afternoon session, Dr. G. A. Fry, examining committee, presented four candidates for ordination: Franklin H. Schott, Johnstown; William H. Keil, East Liverpool; H. Wahl Pfeiffer, Zelienople; Louis C. Golder, Calvary Lutheran. Five pastors were received by transfers from other synods: Rev. John R. Stump, St. James at Emsworth, successor to Rev. J. N. Frank, who has entered the chaplaincy; Rev. Ira M. Wallace, retired; Rev. Arthur Feilner, Reynoldsville; Rev. R. W. Lanhander, Latrobe.

A memorial was conducted for five pastors who have died during the year: Dr. F. E. Stough, St. John's at New Castle; Rev. J. A. Board, Rev. T. L. Chouse, Rev. R. M. Zimmerman, Rev. Geo. Dietz, retired. A survey showed 97 pastors have died in the 22 years since merger of synods; also that 151 have been ordained in the same period.

About 75 persons attended the Thiel College Alumni dinner held at the Y. W. C. A. between sessions, when Pastor E. K. Rogers and James Frantz greeted visitors and talks were given by former state senator Frank Fay of Greenville, president of the college board, and Dr. Roy H. Johnson, professor of history at the school.

Dedication of an American flag for chaplains and men in the armed forces will feature a special patriotic service at 4:30 this afternoon and this evening the Muhlenberg and Heyer anniversary service will take place.

Budget is Adopted and Tax Rate Fixed by School Board

At an adjourned meeting of the Warren borough school board, held last evening at the high school, the budget for the coming fiscal year was adopted and the tax rate set. Other items of business were discussed during the session.

As previously announced, the tax rate for the coming year has been fixed at 21 mills, with a per capita tax of five dollars.

The total amount of the budget is $350,851.56, an increase of approximately $2,000 over that of the past year.

It was stated during the session that an effort is being made to complete the establishment of a defense training school in machine tool operation here. This program has been delayed for some time because of the inability to obtain equipment.

The board last night approved the purchase of approximately $6,000 worth of machinery for the project. Purchase of this machinery is on condition that it be delivered in the very near future.

It was pointed out that the federal government has threatened to withdraw funds allotted to the program unless the school can be opened very soon. Purchases are subject to final approval by the Vocational Division of the State Department of Public Instruction.

The appointment of Harry C. Johnson as delinquent tax collector for the board was approved and his bond fixed at $2,000. Compensation for the collections was fixed at one percent of the amount collected.

The board also approved the election of Warren Miller as head of the commercial department of the Warren High School. Mr. Miller has been employed as a teacher in the local school.

A request from the Lacy P. T. A. for improvement of the Lacy playground was referred to the borough council, which operates the local playground and park system. The board decided to extend the lease of the playground property to the borough until 1949 and will permit the borough to obtain the necessary earth for fill from the academy lands. The P. T. A. group had requested that the baseball diamond at the playground be moved in order to eliminate present danger.

Permission was granted to the music department for a concert by the high school band on the Beaty school grounds on Tuesday evening, June 2. The Music Boosters Association was given permission to erect bleachers for the occasion.

Superintendent John G. Rossman reported that the sale of war savings stamps and bonds in the local schools is very good. It was decided that although the school savings plan has suffered because of the stamp and bond purchases, both programs would be continued.

The Warren Moose lodge was granted permission to use the high school on June 13, during the organization's convention here, upon payment of extra janitorial expense.

The use of a room in the Jefferson school for a kindergarten by Mrs. Earl Stricker was granted for the coming year.

Numerous other matters of a routine nature were discussed during the session. The meeting was adjourned to the call of the president.

Present at the meeting were Directors R. W. May, Ralph Brasington, M. G. Keller, N. D. Paterson and Homer M. Mohr; Solicitor R. Pierson Eaton and Miss Emma Atkins, clerk.

Farmers Must Be Enrolled By June First

The Warren County Agricultural Conservation Committee announces that all farmers who have not previously been enrolled for participation in the 1942 AAA program, either by signing the declaration of intention to participate or by submitting an order for conservation materials, should see their community committee-man or call the county office in the court house, Warren, before June 1st.

Unenrolled farmers must sign the necessary blank in order to be entitled to apply for any conservation payment for soil-building practices carried out before August 31, 1942, after which any payment earned will be applied on the 1943 program, it was stated.

The farmers of the county have received over $55,000 in cash and conservation materials through the operation of the 1941 conservation program. Nearly two hundred more farms have been enrolled for 1942 than for last year.

The following are the members of the Warren county committee: Chairman, Arthur L. Page, R. D. 1, Columbus; W. L. Armistead, R. D. 1, Spring Creek; and A. H. Bradley, R. D. 1, Akeley.

Storage affects the vitamin C content of foods, she points out. Foods stored for several months do not have as much vitamin C as the freshly picked foods. Frozen foods if not allowed to stand after thawing, contain almost as much vitamin C as when these foods are fresh.

Pledge Drive Here Having Final Mop-up

The Pledge for Victory campaign which was handled effectively by the air raid wardens and other workers in Warren and Forest counties is having a "mopping up" week. An additional group of 610 pledges representing $33,893.47, on an annual basis, was forwarded to the Treasury Department in Washington last Saturday, and adding this to the pledges previously forwarded made a grand total of 6,909 pledges amounting to $587,399.81 per year.

There are a few pledge books outstanding in the hands of workers, and those who have not completed the work in their districts are urged to do so at once, and send the completed books as well as any unused books to R. W. Mackay, chairman of the War Savings Committee for Warren and Forest counties.

Name Warren As Examiners Of Used Guns

Army Ordnance officials in Washington have approved a National Rifle Association plan by which two Warren men have been designated to examine privately owned rifles which may be suitable for military use. The NRA plan was submitted in cooperation with a War Department request last month to civilians owning Springfield and Enfield rifles in serviceable condition to sell back to the Government those not too drastically altered for Army use. Under the accepted plan the secretaries of the 2,200 NRA clubs and other officials of this nation-wide organization have been instructed to examine for suitability all rifles of those types which the owners may wish to return. Serving in the Warren area are N. E. Reading, 15 Terrace street and Roger Mahaffy, 2929 Pennsylvania avenue, east.

In past years many 30 caliber Springfield 1903 and Enfield 1917 rifles have been purchased from the Government by sportsmen in this country and may have been radically altered so that it no longer would be practical to refit them to military standards. In order to prevent needless shipping of those guns the War Department directed owners to take their rifles to the Ordnance Officer at the nearest Army post for a preliminary examination before shipping them to the Ordnance Depots specified as receiving points. It is believed that with the number of examining experts increased by the recognition of the NRA officials several thousand additional rifles will be turned in by persons not handy to an Army post or who have no means of transportation.

The Association disclosed that there apparently had been some misunderstanding among gun owners as to what use would be made of the rifles turned in. As far as can be determined from the War Department they will be used only by American troops.

Ordnance officials have indicated that owners who resell their guns will be reimbursed on a scale of prices based on a maximum of $47.64 for Springfields and $12.50 for Enfields of service pattern in excellent condition. Prices will be reduced according to condition, expected life of the weapon and the amount of labor and material required to put the rifle back into "as issued" condition. That payment will not be made, however, until the gun has been received at one of the specified Ordnance Depots. The decision of the preliminary examiner, whether an Army or recognized NRA official, is not to be regarded as official acceptance by the Army, nor is any preliminary examiner authorized to make an estimate as to probable payment. Official acceptance and the decision on payment will be made only at one of the following five receiving depots: Raritan Arsenal, Metuchen, New Jersey; Augusta Arsenal, Augusta, Georgia; San Antonio Arsenal, San Antonio, Texas; Benicia Arsenal, Benicia, California; or Ogden Ordnance Depot, Ogden, Utah.

Gun owners are warned not to send their rifles in until preliminary examination has been made and certain special sporting attachments have been removed at the direction of the preliminary examiner.

KEEP VITAMIN C RICH FOODS IN DAILY DIET

Persons who complain of being tired all the time and lack pep perhaps are not getting enough vitamin C foods in their diet each day, suggests Mrs. Thelma Prendergast home economics extension representative, Warren County. Vitamin C also is necessary for keeping the mouth and gums in a healthy condition.

If the diet lacks foods that contain vitamin C, the bones and teeth of children do not develop properly. There is a lowered resistance to infection and there is often loss of weight. Also the gums bleed easily.

The vitamin C needs of an individual usually are expressed in terms of orange or tomato because both are available the year round. One medium-sized orange or a half cup of orange juice, or 1 cup of stewed tomatoes or tomato juice will provide the vitamin C needed for one day.

One large serving of a raw fruit or vegetable will provide almost as much vitamin C as the orange or tomato, says Mrs. Prendergast. This might be three or four raw apples, a large dish of fresh strawberries, a large dish of raw cabbage salad, or three or four quickly cooked vegetables in season. Potatoes cooked in the skins are a fair source of this valuable vitamin.

Vitamin C is easily destroyed in cooking or storage. Tomatoes or citrus fruits do not lose their vitamin C when cooked or canned because of their high acid content. These juices also can be kept in the refrigerator for several days without losing their vitamin C if they are kept covered. Stirring a food, such as tomatoes or applesauce, while cooking also destroys this vitamin.

Storage affects the vitamin C content of foods, she points out. Foods stored for several months do not have as much vitamin C as the freshly picked foods. Frozen foods if not allowed to stand after thawing, contain almost as much vitamin C as when these foods are fresh.

New Issue of Dragon Proves To Be An Outstanding Book

The 1942 issue of the Dragon, annual publication of the senior class of the Warren High School, which made its appearance yesterday, is one of the most outstanding yearbooks of recent years and is a distinct credit to even student and faculty member who had a part in its preparation.

In keeping with the spirit of the times, the book is carried out in a patriotic vein from cover to cover, being termed the Democracy edition.

The book is dedicated to Miss Hildegarde Edwards, head of the art department of the local schools, "in recognition of her outstanding ability as an artist and of her invaluable instruction as a teacher."

Also included is an appreciation to Miss Elizabeth Wickstrom, English instructor, for her outstanding work as a teacher and assistance to her pupils.

The Dragon contains the usual departments, with credit to the administration and faculty, followed by individual pictures of members of the senior, junior and sophomore classes. Under activities are listed the student council and standing committees, Girls' Club, Hi-Y Club, and Science Club.

In the athletics section are the Girls' Athletic Association, football squad, state championship gym team, basketball squad and the cheerleaders. Comprising the music section are the band, orchestra, a cappella choir, chorus and drum majorettes. The dramatics section contains the Drama Club, junior and senior plays and the evening of plays.

The Stenographers' Club, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Junior Shorthand Club make up the commercial section, while under languages are listed the French Club, German Club and Junior Classical League. In the publications group are Lebewohl, Dragon Board, Dragonette Board and Nunc et Tunc.

Many other fine features are contained in the book. This year's Dragon Board is headed by Alan Blair, editor-in-chief, with Barbara Smith and Charlotte McComas as associated editors and Elliott Dunn as business manager. Other members of the staff are as follows:

Art editor, Robert Hedberg; assistant art editors, Helen Petry, Audrey Petry and Betty Erick; advertising manager, Carl Russo; advertising solicitors, Richard C. Johnson, Gordon Elmquist, Richard Davis, Edward Korb and Bruce Renne; activities editor, Jean Cannon; assistant activities editors, Elizabeth Cowles, Elvira Rydholm and Patty Coe; senior editor, James Shortt; assistant senior editors, William Genes, Joan Weller, Robert Wallace, Bob Thomas and Patty Smith; photograph editor, William Frederick; assistant photograph editors, Corwin Skillman and Gail Barker; junior editor, Robert Folkman; assistant junior editors, Malcolm Young and Dorothy A. Harris; sophomore editor, Theodore Ryberg; assistant sophomore editors, John Borne and Janet Cannon; typists, Joan Leary, Phyllis Kinney, Arlyene McLaughlin, Betty Ann Messner, Arnelia Kuhre, Theresa Juliano and Marjorie Langworthy.

Principal Floyd Bathurst is honorary adviser for the staff. Robert Young is faculty adviser, Miss Christine Hurd, English adviser, and Mrs. Mary Knapp, typing adviser.

The Dragon was printed at the Mohr Printery, which deserves much credit for its fine makeup.

Large Number At Training Session Here

There were 143 men from all parts of the county in attendance at the first session of the five-hour basic training course being given by the Warren County Council of Defense this week.

The course is that required under the OCD regulations for those in any of the auxiliary services connected with the defense council.

The same work that was given last night will be repeated this evening from 7 to 9:30 o'clock.

The second half of the course will be given on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Those who attended last night's session or who attend tonight's meeting may go to either Wednesday or Thursday's meeting. It was stated today by Superintendent John G. Rossman, of the local schools, who is head of OCD training here.

Extra Sugar Now Allowed For Canning

Revised regulations were received by the Warren County Rationing Board today concerning the rationing of sugar for the purpose of canning or preserving fresh fruits for home consumption.

Under the new ruling, one pound of sugar per year will be allowed to each person of a family unit for use in preparing preserves, jams, jellies or fruit butters. In connection with the canning of fresh fruits, sugar certificates shall be granted to a family unit calling for an amount not to exceed one pound per four quarts of finished canned fruit.

Applications for such sugar shall be made to the rationing board at Room 407, Warren National Bank building, on OPA Form R-315 by the member of the family unit authorized to register for War Ration Book Number One. The applicant shall present to the board names of consumers on whose behalf the application is filed; the actual quantity of fruit, in quarts, canned in the preceding calendar year; the number of quarts of fruit then in the possession of the individual or family unit applying; the number of quarts of fruit to be canned during the period for which the application is being made, and the excess sugar supply on hand at the time of registration. The war ration stamp books for all members of the family unit must be presented for endorsement at the time the application for a certificate for sugar for canning is filed.

Any quantity of sugar already allowed for home canning shall be deducted from the allowance being granted.

If sugar allowed under this ruling is not used during the period for which it was allowed, the individual making the application shall within 30 days after the expiration of such period, notify the Board to that effect. Such notification shall be made by the person registering for the family unit. If a certificate is issued but not used, it shall be returned to the board for cancellation.

This change in the original rulings will be welcomed by most Warren county families whose custom it is to can fresh fruits for winter use, and who would have been severely handicapped if the plan, as originally outlined in the sugar rationing program, had been followed.

New Rulings Announced By Ration Board

Because of the severe rubber shortage, the Office of Price Administration finds it necessary to further revise rulings concerning the issuance of certificates for new tires for List "A" vehicles, which includes only those operated in the most essential services, according to information received by the Warren County rationing board.

Under the new orders, no new tires can be released to List "A" vehicles, with the exception of fire and police equipment, if recapped tires will serve.

Neither new or recapped casings will be released to anyone who, in the opinion of the local board, has not given proper care to the tires to be replaced. Anyone who presents an inspector's report that a tire cannot be made fit for recapping or retreading will be required to present supporting evidence that it did not become unusable through abuse or neglect.

Denial of tires to those who misuse them is designed not only to forestall deliberate driving past the point where a casing is recappable, but also to prevent overloading and neglect.

Mr. Henderson said, in issuing this statement, "The purpose of rationing tires is to put them into the hands of those who can best use them for the benefit of the nation. The provisions against abuse are to make sure that this responsibility does not remain with anyone unworthy of it." Standards have been set up to guide all boards in deciding when a tire is recappable, and when it has been abused or neglected.

PUBLIC LIBRARY NOTES

Books for information or relaxation—both many be found among the new titles for circulation at the public library on Saturday. Well informed, poised citizens are necessary to a democracy. Access to well balanced, reliable books help us gain perspective and better equip ourselves to be a real force in this crisis. The library's responsibility is to watch for and purchase, as it can, the books which help to meet the needs indicated daily at the desk or over the telephone.

Our Enemy Japan is a book, new at the library this week, which gives a clear, reliable, "nutshell" view of the background of our war with Japan. Wilfred Fleisher has spent most of his life in Japan; as New York Herald Tribune correspondent to the State Department, he also gives us an authoritative account of the negotiations with the Japanese. Berlin Embassy by William Russell, formerly a clerk in the American Embassy at Berlin is an intensely human story of the little people not in the headlines. Another book of an informational nature is What the Citizens Should Know About the Air Forces by H. E. Hartney, the most recent in a series on the armed forces.

City back-lots and country fields are being converted this summer into rows of vegetables. Grow Your Own Vegetables by P. W. Dempsey should be as helpful to victory gardeners as How to Grow Food For Your Family released recently. Excellent government pamphlets are also featured in the Victory Gardening display.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the announcement of Erasmus of Rotterdam, the last book written by Stefan Zweig. For the recent suicide in exile of this gentle and sensitive literary genius is another grim reminder of how much the world is losing, not only in direct loss of life but in the effects on the living.

An emergency throws into sharp relief the needs of our own people. In 1939, Grapes of Wrath blew the lid off the problem of American migratory labor. Before the disturbing picture could be brushed aside as fiction, Factories in the Field, appeared to buttress it at every point with facts as devastating as Mr. Steinbeck's story of the Joads. Now in Ill Fares the Land, the same author, Carey McWilliams, blasts away the rest of the country's complacency that these conditions are peculiarly Californian. It is a disturbing and challenging account of our whole agricultural revolution.

Books not about the war or our immediate problems are also important if we are to retain perspective of the things that have lasted and which we hope will continue to last. The genius of the world's greatest literary master has survived many upheavals. In Shakespeare Without Tears, Margaret Webster gives us some of the most acute and quickening Shakespearean criticism of our time. The enthusiasm of her audiences over her brilliant and vital Shakespearean productions proves how Shakespeare has the power to stir modern imaginations. Family Album by Agnes Rothery is another book we recommend for real reading pleasure. It is a true, tender and very funny record of an actual family, the author's blessed with a dynamic and witty mother and a picturesque and impulsive father. The big Rothery house in Wellesley was the scene of hilarity and hospitality for many girls of Wellesley and Dana Hall and boys of Harvard and Tech. Family Album should have a wide reading appeal.

If you find yourself caught in a street car track give the wheel a quick twist. Gradually forcing the wheels out of the rails will grind off some of the rubber.

Milk Mixture For Stomach Ulcers

A recent medical discovery now being used by doctors and hospitals everywhere has proven unusually successful in the treatment of stomach ulcers caused from excess acid. It is a harmless preparation yet so effective that in many cases the pains of stomach ulcers disappear almost immediately after it is used. Also recommended for gas pains, indigestion and heartburn due to hyperacidity. Sufferers may now try this at home by obtaining a bottle of Lurin from their druggist. Lurin contains this new discovery in its purest form. Easy to take. Just mix two teaspoonfuls in a half glass of milk. Costs but little. Try a bottle. It must satisfy or money refunded. LUTHERAN CONVENTION
It is no small honor that comes to Warren in being permitted to entertain the Lutheran pastors of Western Pennsylvania, comprising the Pittsburgh Synod of The United Lutheran Church in America, now in session in the edifice of the local congregation of that denomination. Coming at the invitation of Rev. E. K. Rogers and the congregation, it is interesting to note that this is the third time in twenty years the Synod has met in Warren.

That there is a different trend of mind and heart prevailing this year is indicated by the following letter which was mailed to all pastors by the Department of Evangelism:

"As we face the coming convention of Synod perhaps you feel as we do that the church needs to witness for the Faith very definitely. In order that the convention may have a full measure of devotion would it not be well for us to present ourselves before the throne of Grace not only as individuals but as church groups as well? In addition it would greatly help, not only ourselves but the members of First Church as well as the people of Warren if in the evening before retiring we gather in small groups in our rooms at the hotels or call together the people of the homes where we are staying or being entertained to close the day with devotions."

"The Synod realizes that there are heavy crosses lying before its people," stated one of the delegates yesterday. "This convention will be one of sincere and consecrated devotion for God, His people and our nation."

TIMELY SUGGESTION
A Bradford paper offers the following timely suggestion which might well be adopted in Warren and every other community in the country:

Now is the time for self-contentment, community entertainment events, small town enterprises subsisting on what is known as strictly hometown affairs, band concerts in the park, and self-promoted hometown variety of amusement and social events.

Now is the time for churches to get busy on attendance. At least two factors operate to their advantage. There is the normal wartime anxiety that turns the people to the churches. War has this effect, although not to the extent some would suppose. A wave of prosperity counteracts this tendency. However, what with the influence of the war and a rationing of gasoline in prohibitive amounts, the churches may find their attendance will tax the capacity of their buildings. That community which has an abundance of social promoters may find it has an asset worthy of development. Indeed the contentment and morale of all American communities may find a potential ally in the dearth of gasoline rationed to them; provided, of course, they have adequate promotion in their midst to meet the emergency.

HOW DEAR TO OUR HEARTS
Once upon a time, many and many a year ago, men did not wear pajamas when they went to bed. They wore nightshirts.

Nightshirts are long—usually—and shapeless. Except that they are made from a soft material, they look and feel little different than oversized grain bags with sleeves.

The War Production Board toyed with the idea of shifting all men from pajamas to nightshirts until we beat Hitler. They may have thought we would hustle that much more to finish the job. But calmer, kinder second thought intervened. They'll take the frills off our pajamas, but they won't sentence us to nightshirts. The ultimate in indignity has not been achieved.

Two of Warren's three popular band organizations, the Struthers-Wells and V. F. W. were parading the streets last evening much to the delight of lovers of that particular brand of music. The former helped at the official opening of the local softball league and the latter serenaded the Selectee group enroute east following examinations at Erie.

According to an article in this issue plans are rapidly being formulated for the annual exercises to be held in Warren Saturday. Memorial Day means a lot more this year. There is a deeper appreciation of the fine principles for which men offered their lives and so many gave them.

WASHINGTON—If Washington's any example, the nation's first rationing got off to a pretty poor start. . . and I'm talking about gasoline, not sugar or tires.

Tires are not rationed on the registration basis. So far as the public is concerned, they're forbidden. Sugar is on a registration basis but the allowance in general is sufficient to the needs of the individual and everybody gets the same. It wasn't until gasoline rationing came along in the eastern states that the bugs in the machine actually became apparent.

NEW YORK—Chambers Street. That's me, I'm New York's breadbasket. They dump it on my sidewalk every night. All night. In piles 20 feet high. Cabbages. Potatoes. Onions. In boxes, crates, gunny sacks. They bring it in in trucks. Big high-toned moving trucks. And in horse drawn carts. They make barricades out of cabbages and castles out of lettuce and pyramids out of apples. Citrus Lane they call it, along Cabbage Row. Then they take it away. To the restaurants. To the hotels and cafes. To the markets and the green grocers and the chain grocers and the independent grocers. All over town. All over Manhattan, and the Bronx. They take it to Staten Island. To Queens, and to Brooklyn.

When you walk along there, say, about eight o'clock, in the morning, on your way to the office, you don't see much. . . Oh, you see enough, but not so much as you see in the after dark hours. In the mornings, you see the white onions and the red onions. . . The people who put the onions in their loosely woven sacks know what they are doing. . . They emphasize color. . . They put the white onions in the white sacks, and the red onions in the red sacks. That's what they do. It makes the white seem whiter, and the red redder.

Sow Perennial Flowers Before Hot Summer Days

Gardeners who plan to grow perennials from seed this year, and every gardener should do so, will have an easier time of it if they will sow in May instead of waiting until June or later.

When summers are hot and dry it is often quite a task to get seeds to germinate in June, and seedling plants must be given extra attention at that time to keep from being scorched to death.

In April and May, however, we usually have cool, moist weather which hastens germination and is favorable to the young plants. Many of the perennials germinate best in cool weather. Delphiniums, for example, grow best in a temperature of 40 degrees.

When seeds are sown in April or early May the seedlings should be transplanted in July so that they have room to develop into sturdy plants. They will be large enough by fall to be planted in the border where they are to grow.

There is no garden operation which saves money faster than growing one's own perennials. When plants are purchased they are relatively expensive because of the long growing period, the intensive care they have had and the large percentage of loss. Plants have never been grown successfully in large scale operations because of the limited area over which they can be distributed satisfactorily and the high cost of packing such fragile subjects for shipment. The gardener who grows his own pays only for the seed. The task of caring for the plants and observing their

Ed Seagist scattered seven hits among the S-W batters and while his mates could obtain only that many off Tony Bonavita and Baldensperger, they bunched them and took advantage of walks and errors to compile the 11-run total.

Walt Confer and Dick Pearce, two veterans of the game from the days when it was at its peak in popularity in this area, pounded out the only extra base hits in the contest, both getting doubles.

Games tomorrow evening and Thursday night will round out this week's program.

SPORTS SPATTERINGS

As we write this column for today's sport page, it is not quite definite whether or not the Sunset League would field five or four teams when the loop season opens next week, but the difference of one team seems immaterial inasmuch as four teams promise to provide equal strength for the most part and probably better ball in the long run, though five teams give a greater assortment of talent and will provide more youngsters with an opportunity to show their wares and gain valuable experience. Regardless of what the final decision is, expected today and of which comment possibly can be found elsewhere in the paper, if not on the sport page, baseball fans are bound to get their money's worth this summer, as some of the finest talent in the area has been lined up to treat them three times weekly, weather permitting, with the first community league hardball since 1939. The Forge and Hospital are tested powers and, with added mound strength having been acquired by the Warren Eagles, as well as an experienced receiver, this outfit, too, may show plenty of fight and threaten seriously for the league bunting. Clarendon and Stoneham may combine, and if this is done today, it will mould another team which should be fully capable of putting up an even scrap against any of the three other outfits. Stoneham has the hitting and fielding strength, while the Clarendon boys boast the needed pitching power for a winning ball club. Separately, they would have some building to do to match the other league entrants, but together they stand an even chance of finding the coveted top spot for their share of the time.

It looked like old times again last night on the West Side diamond when Struthers-Wells and the Recreation Center got together following Burgess Ray Steber's opening pitch to inaugurate the 1942 City Softball League season. Not in ten years has there been such a crowd out on any community diamond to see a softball encounter, and the spirit spread quickly among the players themselves, all of them turning in creditable performances to make the first night a successful one from every standpoint. Back when the Butter-Kruts and Walker's IXL reigned supreme in the sandlot softball ranks, crowds used to fill the town's playgrounds with as many as three games a night, successfully drawing their own fandom. Perhaps the old days will be coming back this season. Everything points to it. There's only one note we'd like to bring up at this stage, concerning a few vandals trying to ruin the efforts of the City League. After spending considerable time to prepare the diamond, and going to the expense of installing a new home plate, early this week one evening some hoodlums drove the infield, leaving ruts from the automobile wheels, and ran off with the new home pan. League officials have a good idea just who was responsible for these actions, and the diamond, it might be mentioned, is to be guarded specially henceforth. So, don't say you weren't warned, in case a few of our none too beneficial local "citizens" find themselves in the city cage some morning.

EAGLES, STONEHAM CLASH IN OPENER

CEREMONIES FOR CONTEST ARE PLANNED

Stoneham and the Eagles won the honor of battling in the opening game of the Sunset League scheduled for next Monday evening during last night's session of team managers and league officials.

A line of events including fitting pre-game ceremonies to give baseball a big send-off in its first season locally since 1939 is being prepared now by a league committee and will be printed upon completion later this week.

Entry fees were received last evening after which a committee of which Treasurer Myron Jewell will be chairman, was appointed for selecting baseballs to be used in the circuit this summer.

The lack of pitching power in the area added a new light to the loop setup last evening when discussion considering the combining of Stoneham and Clarendon to make one competent aggregation was held.

Whether or not this move will be made was expected to be known today, and if the two teams do combine, the league will, of course, operate with four outfits, all of them well balanced and capable of making an interesting circuit.

The field must be dragged and rolled this week and in the meantime grass must be mowed where problems in the hands of the league officials.

Admission of 15 cents including tax will be charged this summer for all adults, with children being admitted free.

Games will begin each evening at 6:30 o'clock and are expected to be seven-inning affairs for the most part, unless longer evenings permit the regulation nine innings.

Savold Wins; Wants Bomber

Washington, May 26.—(P)—Lee Savold, the blond Iowan who has been fighting professionally for nine of his 25 years, came up today with a loud claim for a shot at boxing's richest prize—Champion Joe Louis' heavyweight crown.

Savold, who won a technical knockout over California Lou Nova in eight rounds last night, thinks he could give Private Joe a good battle.

Savold said he would ask Promoter Mike Jacobs to arrange a bout with Louis in Washington during the summer.

Savold, weighing 188½ pounds, looked shaky at the start against the bigger, heavier Nova. But after three rounds Lee started to show his stuff. He claimed later that he could have taken the 200½ pound Californian any time after the third round, but that his handlers insisted on a defense battle.

Smith Qualifies for Hale America Open

Erie, Pa., May 26.—(P)—Qualifiers in the Erie district round for the Hale American National Open Championship Tournament were led yesterday by Art Vogt who scored a 161 over the water-logged Kahkwa course.

Other qualifiers were Ken Sumner of Erie, and Harold Smith of the Conewago Valley Country Club, Warren, Pa., who carded 166. W. V. Vogt was runnerup with 164 but drew in favor of Smith and Sumner.

The national championship will be held June 6-7 at Buffalo, N. Y.

One-fifth of the total game killed is bagged on the first day in the area opened for a limited hunting season.

Frank Rossell Takes Scant Lead in County Singles Tournament

The third and final shift in the first annual county-wide singles tournament is scheduled for tomorrow evening at eight o'clock at the Penn Bowling Center, and the way the event stands today, any one of five contestants should have a good chance of winning the top money.

For that matter, all eight contestants with a total of 1400 or over already are still in the running, and the third night pressure is expected to administer a few surprises.

Frank Rossell, meanwhile, jumped into the lead last night when he cracked out 758 over the four-game route, highest individual effort so far, and put that together with his first round 755 for a 1543 total.

Dick Check, first shift leader with a 758, three pins better than Rossell, hit 759 last night and is in second place, 26 pins behind, moving into the final shift.

But threatening both of the tourney pace-makers who have been thus far hugging the top positions, are Pete Juliano, with 1511, Myron Check, with 1468, and Mike Blech with 1428, not to mention Harold Bjers with 1423, A. Karlson with 1402, and Sammy Cosmano with 1400.

While experts say that any of the first eight keggers still hold bright opportunities of finishing in the money, the remaining eight bowlers in the field of 16 which opened the affair are practically out.

Will Revive Calcutta At Country Club

The Calcutta tournament, a popular feature of men's day at the Conewago Club a decade and more ago, will be renewed this week as a feature of the Thursday program at the local club.

All golfers who have turned in enough nine-hole scores to rate handicaps will be eligible to compete in the Calcutta and as others become eligible their names will be added to the list.

Actual play of the first Calcutta will be one week from this Thursday, but the "auction" which always precedes it will be held this week. "Tim" Creal, chairman of the golf committee, will preside, with Mac Rice as auctioneer and Neil MacDonald and Bob Kopf the clerks. Al Mitchell has charge of the handicaps.

Before the "auction," golfers will qualify for the four-ball best ball tournament, the first round of which will be played Friday or Saturday. The second round and first round of the consolation is scheduled for May 31-June 1; the third round to be played from June 4 to June 6 and the finals are scheduled for June 7-10.

The local layout is now in A-1 condition and an increasing number of linksmen are playing daily.

Smith Qualifies for Hale America Open

Erie, Pa., May 26.—(P)—Qualifiers in the Erie district round for the Hale American National Open Championship Tournament were led yesterday by Art Vogt who scored a 161 over the water-logged Kahkwa course.

Other qualifiers were Ken Sumner of Erie, and Harold Smith of the Conewago Valley Country Club, Warren, Pa., who carded 166. W. V. Vogt was runnerup with 164 but drew in favor of Smith and Sumner.

The national championship will be held June 6-7 at Buffalo, N. Y.

One-fifth of the total game killed is bagged on the first day in the area opened for a limited hunting season.

HASSETT IS BRONX HERO IN YANK WIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

There probably are some players with memories long enough to remember away back to the time this spring when the New York Yankees had a first base problem.

In fact the World Champions have had a first base problem ever since Lou Gehrig stepped out of the lineup in 1939, but John Aloysius (Buddy) Hasset has provided a reasonably good solution in recent weeks.

He is loose on a hitting string of five games and yesterday he provided for all New York's runs in a 3-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

He singled two tallies across in the third and tripled in the sixth to romp home on a fly by Tom Henrich. Spud Chandler pitched seven "bat stufing" the Sox after the first inning.

This was New York's 14th triumph in 17 games and increased its American League lead to 3½ games as the Cleveland Indians dropped a 5-1 decision to the Chicago White Sox. Bill Dietrich pitched six-hit ball to outlast Chubby Dean.

Chapter 11
Wading

SOMETIME later, when Kathleen and Fred arrived at their destination, Fred found that Miss Camilla was all that Kathleen had said she was. She was ancient, active, and the possessor of a house that might have been lifted straight from a Virginia plantation and set down here a couple of hundred miles farther north.

"You mean you-all want to use some of my things on a stage?" Miss Camilla exclaimed.

"Yes'm," said Fred. He looked around the big living room into which Miss Camilla had invited them. "As a matter of fact, I'd like to pick up this room just as it is and carry it off."

"Shucks!" exclaimed Miss Camilla. "This stuff is purty nigh as old as Adam. It's what I saved from that old devil Sherman. I reckon he'd have stolen it, too, or burnt it, if my mother hadn't stood his men off with an ax."

"Is that what she did—really?" said Fred, interested.

"It certainly is what she did," said Miss Camilla, her eyes flashing. "She nearly chopped off my Yankee's fingers—and was only sorry she couldn't chop off his head. The idea, molesting a decent woman—ordering her out of her house, and threatening to burn it over her head!"

"They can't afford to pay rent for the furniture," Kathleen added. "Summer theatres don't make a lot of money. But I'm sure you'd never let a play. Wouldn't you, Miss Camilla?"

"Of course I would!" said Miss Camilla. "I recollect seeing a drama once with my dad. It was full of shooting and swearing—and he had a lot of trouble explaining to mother how he happened to take me. But dad and I understood each other."

She then took Fred and Kathleen on a tour of the house.

It was filled to the attic with fine old pieces, and Fred acted as though he were in heaven.

When they were back in the living room, Miss Camilla insisted upon serving coffee and cake. It was while they were sitting around a beautiful old mahogany drop-leaf table that she spoke to Kathleen about marriage.

"I keep expecting to get an invite to your and Joe's wedding," she said. "What you-all waiting so long for, honey?"

"Oh, there's a number of reasons," Kathleen said.

"Are you still wanting to act?" "Yes, Miss Camilla," Kathleen replied honestly. "I think I have a right to see what I can do with my talent."

"Don't tell me you're hankering after playing parts in that barn of yours!" said Miss Camilla.

"I'd like to—yes," said Kathleen.

"Miss Camilla turned on Fred. "Don't you dare encourage her!" she said.

"I'm not going to," Fred grinned. "But there's nothing you and I can do about it."

Kathleen was annoyed. She pushed back her chair.

DATE FOR DINNER

"I THINK we ought to be going now, Fred," she said. "I want to show you some other places around the country." She smiled at Miss Camilla. "Thanks a lot for the coffee and cake, Miss Camilla."

"You're more'n welcome, honey," said Miss Camilla, rising. "And both of you come and see me again soon—won't you?"

"You can count on me, all right," said Fred. "I think you're a pretty swell person, Miss Camilla. Maybe I ought to kidnap you and put you in the play for atmosphere."

"Shucks!" said Miss Camilla, pleased. "Go long with you!"

"You'll be hearing from me soon," Fred said just before he

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Aside from the sixty-mile an hour Mosquito Torpedo Boats, the Sub Chasers are the speedsters of our Navy. Light and fast, they are the eyes of the Fleet on the water. They displace approximately 1,500 tons and cost about $2,400,000 each.

We need many of these powerful, fast little boats to cope with the treacherous submarine type of naval warfare fostered by our enemies. Everybody can help pay for more Sub Chasers by putting at least ten percent of his income into War Bonds. Buy Bonds or Stamps every pay day. Buy them from your bank, your post office, or from your office or factory through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Father of Missing Flier Has Fine Letters From Friends

Two letters expressing sympathy for William A. Armstrong, of Youngsville, in the loss of his son, Corp. Porter Armstrong, who was recently reported missing in the British West Indies, have been received by the Youngsville man, on from Capt. Cameron W. Lane, of Beane Field, Saint Lucia, where the youth was stationed, and the other from friends of the young man.

In his letter, Capt. Lane said: "The officers and men of the Fifth Bombardment Squadron desire to express to you their deep sympathy for the loss of your beloved son who disappeared in an airplane at approximately 6:00 p. m. on April 23, 1942.

"As soon as the search has been made but no trace of the airplane or its occupants have been found.

"Corporal Armstrong was extremely popular with members of this squadron. He was an excellent non-commissioned officer and his loss will be keenly felt by the air corps as well as by his friends in the squadron.

"As soon as definite information concerning your son is discovered you will be notified immediately as to the correct procedure regarding unpaid pay, allowances and insurance."

The second letter, from Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rissling, said: "Please accept our sympathy in the loss of your son. We miss him an awful lot, as he spent all of his spare time at our home, and we became very close friends. It may be that Porter has written to you about us.

"We first became acquainted with Porter through our son who is six years old, who was very fond of him. We want you to know what a fine man Porter was and the finest man we have ever met. We were very proud to have him in our home. We even planned to visit with you all as soon as the war ended.

"As soon as we return we will visit with you as we have a lot to talk over with you. We have heard a lot about you and what a pal you were with Porter.

"I have some pictures of Porter with my boy and as soon as they are developed will mail to you.

"If there is anything you would like to know, or if we can do anything, please let us know. We miss Porter a lot. Hoping this letter finds you in good health."

Chinese headquarters acknowledged that Japanese troops, estimated at 100,000, had advanced within two miles of the ancient walled city of Kihwa, the Chekiang provisional capital.

Chinese dispatches said the Japanese assault on Kihwa had been thrown back with heavy casualties, but acknowledged that "the situation is still very grave and the coming week will witness even fiercer battles."

In the battle for Australia, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced the Allied bombers blasted their way through Japanese interceptor squadrons to pound anew at enemy airdromes at Rabaul, New Britain, and Lae, New Guinea. Four Japanese planes were reported shot down.

Meanwhile, Admiral Sir Andrew Browne Cunningham, who has just left his post as commander of Britain's Mediterranean fleet, to head the British admiralty delegation in Washington, said here that it would be "very nasty" for the Allies if the French naval forces at Toulon were turned over to the Axis.

Dispatches from Bern yesterday said both Germany and Italy appeared cooling fast toward Laval, collaborationist chief of the Vichy government. Berlin writers spoke of "the stagnation" in German-French relations.

Meanwhile, the Germans are using Italian territorial demands to force France to give up the fleet peacefully, at the same time insisting that Laval produce for the Axis or get out, it was declared.

There was a huge crowd on hand at the Pennsylvania Railroad station here last evening when members of Warren county's selective service contingent who passed their final examinations earlier in the day went through here enroute to an unannounced induction station.

Adding to the gala spirit of the occasion was the presence of the Veterans of Foreign Wars band, which marched to the station prior to the time for the train's arrival.

No official word had been received here today as to the number of men who passed their final physical examinations. However, it was reported unofficially that four had failed.

"I WANT YOU SO"

In shadows of the trees I see you pass
I hear your softest footfall in the grass
And in the murmuring winds that softly blow
I hear your voice and O I want you so.

I look above into the deep blue skies
And there I see the azure of your eyes
I see your smile in sunset's after-glow
Your laughing smile and O I want you so.

In golden rays of morning sunshine fair
I see the golden glints shine in your hair
I hear your laughter in the brook-lets flow
Your silver laughter and I want you so.

And when the twilight steals o'er vale and hill
I feel your soothing presence calm and still
And as the quiet hours come and go
I feel your presence and I want you so.

Rachel W. Eaton Is Presenting Students
In Closing Recitals

At eight o'clock this evening in the Philomel Club, Rachel W. Eaton will present in public recital her older pupils, who will be assisted by a flute trio composed of David Leidig, Helen Claire Hulings and Nema Glassman. All parents and interested friends are cordially invited.

On Monday evening, Mrs. Eaton presented her group of junior students in a varied recital of piano solos and rhythmic numbers. Although this was the first public appearance of many of the children they performed with an ease of manner which delighted the large audience and which showed patient and skillful teaching.

Features of the evening were the appearance of the rhythmic groups, with their impersonations of kittens, fairies, ponies, elephants and the merry-go-round and its riders. The rhythm orchestra played with such a professional air that the audience demanded an encore and it was readily agreed that the year's work had provided the children with a thorough groundwork for future musical study.

Those comprising the rhythm class were Richard Eggleston, Joan Beckley, Robert Bloom, John Cashman, Charles Eaton, Beverly Hanson, William Long, Margaret McConas, Murray McConas, Andrea Wright, Sally Swanson, Gerald Kippen, Herschel Rosenzweig and Glenn Brown. Piano pupils heard in the recital were Charles Eaton, Patty Harrington, Margaret Eaton, Stouroula Fanos, Richard Greenwald, Lola Jane Struble, Carroll Barrett, David Winans, Mary Houston, David Harrington, Johan Stahl, Mary Katherine Wehner, Ira Brown, Sandra Mavrelis, Donald Wood and Elizabeth Dunham.

At the conclusion of the evening, punch and cookies were served in the club parlors.

DOOLITTLE DOES PLENTY!
Picture Highlights in the Incredible Career of the Man Who Bombed Tokyo

Daring, determined James Harold Doolittle was 25 and a lieutenant fresh out of World War I when he scored his first big flying feat, shooting coast-to-coast in less than 24 hours. For setting this Florida-to-California record he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Record-breaking Jimmy added another laurel by shattering every seaplane mark in the world when he won the Schneider cup race at Baltimore in 1925 at 232.5 miles per hour. Smart as well as speedy, he took a doctorate in science at M. I. T. the same year.

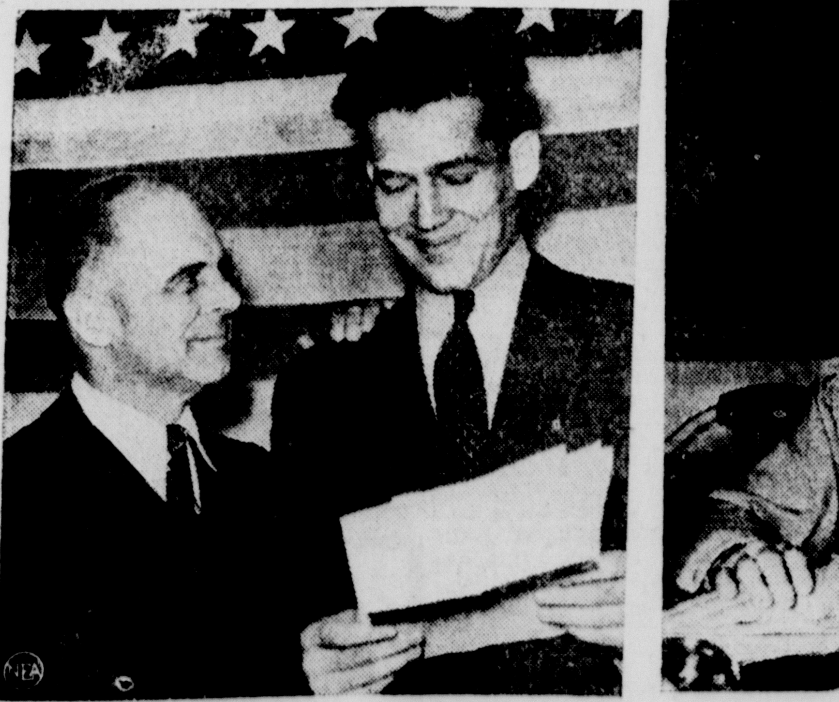

Doolittle was doing plenty by 1931 when he came out of the cockpit the winner of the Bendix transcontinental flying trophy in connection with the National Air Races. He was Army's first pilot to do an outside loop and made a "chute jump from a wrecked plane at 300 feet.

This was the fantastic "all motor" plane Doolittle flew at 252.68 miles per hour to win the Thompson trophy in the 1932 air races. He had left the Army to enter private business and spend more time with his wife and two growing sons.

Mrs. Doolittle went along when Jimmy set a new transport plane mark in 1935, flying Los Angeles to New York in 12 hours.

A proud father watched James Doolittle, Jr., 21, join the Army Air Corps in 1941. Back in the service himself, Doolittle, Sr., pinned the wings on his son a few months later. John Doolittle, 19, intends to enter West Point.

Now a national hero for leading the raid on Japan and wearer of the Congressional Medal of Honor, Brig.-Gen. James H. Doolittle, still "the little man with the big grin," stands ready to show more Army flyers the way to Tokyo from Shangri La.

Good Health
For the AgedBY PAUL BRAUNSCHWEIGER of the Mullen Drug Co.

"Man is a tower raised by his teeth" is an old saying, meaning that we are made of the food that we consume.

What about those who have passed into the sunset years, when digestive functions slow up? To eat more often, to eat more lightly, to adhere to a prescribed diet of easily digested foods is part of the plan of good health for the aged. Regular checkups by the doctor are especially important, for the doctor quickly discerns signals of slowing up processes, and is able to advise diet and wholesome activity suited to individual needs.

Pure, properly compounded medication calls for the skill of a well-trained druggist.
